The microwave baking machine for dried fruit can achieve different functions such as drying, baking, sterilization (insecticidal) and puffing by adjusting microwave power, convey speed.

Sterilization Principle Of Industrial Microwave Equipment:

1	The Thermal Effect Of Microwave Energy:	Under The Action Of a Certain Intensity Of Microwave Field, Insects And Bacteria In Food Will Absorb Microwave Energy To Heat Up Due To Molecular Polarization, Thereby Denaturing Their Protein And Losing Biological Activity.
2	The Non-Thermal Effect Of Microwave Energy:	Under The Action Of a Certain Intensity Of Microwave Field, Insects And Bacteria In Food Will Absorb Microwave Energy To Heat Up Due To Molecular Polarization, Thereby Denaturing Their Protein And Losing Biological Activity.

3 Microwave Sterilization And Preservation Are The Result Of The Combined Effect Of Microwave Thermal Effect And Non-Thermal Effect? The High-Frequency Electric Field Also Changes The Membrane Potential And Polar Molecular Structure; It Causes The Proteins And Physiologically Active Substances In The Microorganisms To Mutate And Lose Vitality Or Death.
